REQUIREMENTS FOR APPLYING FOR A MEDICAL TREATMENT VISA TO ITALY

- National Visa Application Form (for stays exceeding three months);
- Schengen Visa Application Form (for short stays of less than three months);
- Passport valid for at least 90 days beyond the end of the intended stay (the visa will be affixed to the passport), together with a photocopy of the page containing personal details;
- Valid Chilean Identity Card (RUT), together with a photocopy;
- One colour photograph, 35 x 40 mm in size (https://www.icao.int/sites/default/files/FAL/Annex_A-Photograph_Guidelines.pdf);
- Reservation of a round-trip ticket, or proof of availability of private means of transport, including for any accompanying person;
- Medical certificate confirming the applicant's medical condition, issued by an Italian healthcare facility (public or privately accredited) or by a foreign healthcare facility, in the latter case accompanied by an Italian translation, certifying the actual medical condition;
- Declaration issued by the Italian public healthcare facility or private healthcare facility accredited with the National Health Service (Servizio Sanitario Nazionale), specifying the type of treatment, its scheduled start date and estimated duration, the expected length of any subsequent hospitalisation, and the estimated cost;
- Confirmation from the Italian healthcare facility that a deposit equal to 30% of the estimated total cost of the requested medical services has been paid, or, alternatively, a specific regional resolution or specific authorisation issued by the Ministry of Health under humanitarian programmes;
- Documentation proving the availability of sufficient financial resources in Italy to cover the remaining medical expenses, as well as food and accommodation costs outside the healthcare facility, and the repatriation expenses of the patient and any accompanying person;
- Travel medical insurance providing minimum coverage of €30,000 for emergency hospitalisation and repatriation expenses, for any accompanying persons travelling with the patient.

PLEASE NOTE: The above information is of a general nature. Each application will be assessed on an individual basis.
